WORSHIP THIS WEEK

June 13, 2010

Scripture: Matthew 16:13-23

Sermon: "When Evil Gets Personal"

A PASTORAL WORD

By Rev. Amy Lippoldt

Ever sit in worship or read through your Bible and wonder, why don't we ever talk about... (insert wonderment here)... at church? Now's your chance to share that thought! I am collecting topic suggestions for the next twelve months of worship at Woodland. Send me your burning questions, Biblical books or characters you would like to hear more about or simply some topic you think would be uplifting and helpful for us in our worship life. We give glory to God when we engage our minds around worship, so I want to know what is on yours! Suggestions can be e-mailed, dropped off in the office or submitted in the boxes at the back of the Sanctuary.

This Sunday is the last one for the choir before they take their summer break. I appreciate so much all they do to help make our worship lively and beautiful. Special thanks to our two soloists for the year, Tyson Schmidt, tenor and Lindsay Ramirez, soprano. They are both headed to other cities next year, we will miss them.

Perhaps you are wondering, "What's happening with Daybreak?" A great deal! I am thankful that last week we were able to hire all of our musicians for the service. We also have a great list of people committed to attend Daybreak for the first 12 weeks but we are still collecting names for "seed congregation" members. And I hope you are thinking about persons you can invite for our launch on September 12. It's not too early to start sowing some seeds of your own.

Pathfinders Class

13 of us took a Flint Hills tour on Saturday, fun, fun, fun and some fabulous chocolate sheet cake!

Keep Lee Humphrey in your prayers, her mother's home (which just sold) burned on Saturday. Remember Mark Smith's father who is in the hospital in Louisiana with pneumonia and Rosemary's aunt who had a stroke. Also remember a friend of Rosemary's who lost an infant this week.

Rev. Amy led our class this week. The first portion of the class was discussing our new Daybreak service. She also started teaching from "A Good and Beautiful God." Come next week, this is good stuff!

Starting August 1, Pathfinders Sunday school class time will change to 9:45 am because Worship service is changing to 11:00am.

Val Vers Class

We were glad to have Jenese Furstenberg back in class, and we welcomed John Brooks as a guest--we hope he comes back.

Don Eland finished the lessons on "The Death and Resurrection of Jesus". Thanks Don. Next week Tim Bever will start a series on Faith Mentoring and we have home work to do!!! Make sure you complete Tim's hand out sheet and bring it next week.

Don announced an upcoming fund raiser for Bridges to the Future. Mark your calendar for July 31 for a fun evening of "New Old Couples Game". Pies are needed (for throwing or eating we aren't sure).

Thanks to all the Val Vers for the goodies for Fellowship Coffee.

Blenders Class

Thirty in-right, out-right, up-right, down-right happy all the time Blenders met this beautiful Sunday morning to worship, pray and listen to the word of God!

We were happy to wish Marlyn a very happy birthday and rejoice with her over her wonderful present from Duane. (Marlyn, I have you beat - one Christmas I received a new mop.)

Our hearts were saddened to hear of the death of a good friend, Lois Lyons of Hutchison; the death of Mickey's brother, Dick Yoder (the inventor of Pronto Pup); Keith's sister-in-law and good Blender friend, Phyllis Townsend who has broken a hip; the Blenders' very good friend, Mary DeNeen who also broke a hip (St. Francis Hospital). We are thinking of you and will keep you in our prayers.

Betty Howell announced her son, Steve, will be spending three years as provost at the University in Botswana. Our prayers are with him.

If you are interested in buying the study guide "For the Love of God" ($6.75) please see Caroline Johnson.

Plans for a "eating out" venture will be announced next week.

Marj Dickeson gave her devotions centered on Psalm 91. God does take care of us. Thanks for sharing, Marj.

Anita Martz very ably presented the thoughts of a story (Horton Hatches the Egg by Dr. Seuss) taken from a book by James Kemp, retired pastor. Thank you, Anita, for leading our thoughts and comments concerning promises, love, strength, and stick-to-itiveness in our own lives. And thank you, Val Vers, for the wonderful Fellowship time. See you all next week!
