WORSHIP THIS WEEK

July 4, 2010

Scripture: 1 Kings 19: 9-16

Sermon: "Shhhhhh!"

Sacrament of Holy Communion

A PASTORAL WORD

By Rev. Amy Lippoldt

We are now just over ten weeks from the launch of the new Daybreak service here at Woodland. What? Ten weeks? That is no time at all! And there is still much to be done. For me, yes but also for you. A few weeks ago I just about fell out of my chair when a church member told me she had been brainstorming people in her life she could invite to Daybreak. Her list was two pages long! Wow!

Not all of us will be able to come up with a two page list. But perhaps we can all think of two people who need a personal invitation to Daybreak. Or maybe there is someone who would rather come with you to our traditional service, invite them to that instead.

No matter how many ads we place in neighborhood newspapers, on facebook or over e-mail, the most effective evangelism tool we have as a church community is ourselves. We offer the invitation and then trust God to do the work. We trust that God will provide something meaningful and inspirational in worship. We trust that God will be present to our friends if we simply open the door.

So keep thinking of your invitation list. We will have postcards out soon for you to hand around to friends or family or neighbors or whoever you think might like to see what Daybreak is all about.

Pathfinders Class

Welcome to our visitor Melinda Holloway from Atlanta. Glad to have you! Visit again next time you are in town.

Thank you, Rev. Amy for teaching this month on "The Good and beautiful God". Come next week when we hear about Zephaniah. Doug Young will be teaching.

Remember our 4th of July party at Herpolsheimer/Snyder house. It starts at 3pm.

We are in charge of Fellowship Coffee next week, be early!

Val Vers Class

Val Vers had wonderful treats today provided by Nelda and Bob Gutzman. Nelda's sister, Janice Carter, was visiting today --she and Nelda are headed off for a week of travel together--know they will have fun.

Good News for the Bassetts--they have sold their house and looking forward to the move to Goddard to be closer to their son and his family.

Tim Bever finished up his lessons on Faith Mentoring with a reminder that transmitting our faith and our faith heritage is what we do, and that it occurs naturally as we are open to God working through each of us.

Thanks to Ray Keller for helping out with coffee cleanup this month. We couldn't do without our coffee.

Blenders Class

A "pleasant bunch" of Blenders met on this hot, hot Sunday ready for fellowship and worship with our friends.

We welcomed our guests, Rod and Jana Phillips Duke from Boone, NC here in Wichita visiting Pat Phillips.

Our prayers and concerns this morning are for Caroline who is having surgery Wednesday morning; Jean Branson, who is recovering from a bad fall; Jerry Taylor, who is in Wesley 4-335; and Marge Parsons who recently underwent surgery. We are happy Marge Brooks is recovering nicely and happy that her missing (for 7 months) billfold was found.

Eleanor reminded those of us that volunteered for various class jobs who will be taking over in July.

Thank you Frances for your thought provoking devotions about an incident on the Brooklyn subway. Was it chance or a miracle that occurred there?

Anita Martz gave us a pop quiz concerning animals in the Bible and used Genesis 1:1-9 as her scripture. Thanks to you, Anita, for serving as our teacher during June. See all of you next Sunday.

Youth

By Pastor Tim Bever

No news reported.

Elementary Sunday school

By Linda Youngman

Psalm 121:2 "My help comes from the Lord who made heaven and earth."

What do you do when your life gets stormy? Through the story of when Paul was in stormy weather and survived a shipwreck, the elementary children were reminded that God is always with us and only a prayer away. Playing games, singing and watercolor painting were part of the morning as well. We were all blessed to have seen Love in action during the past week. All elementary children are invited to join us next week.

IN OUR PRAYERS

Cliff Larson, Lela Fredrick, Catherine Highfill, Janet Himebaugh, Kathy Carter, Elna Claire Valine, Kathlene Moore, Mary DeNeen Jerry Taylor, Marge Brooks, Marge Parsons, Eura Fretz, Eileen Pruitt.

Help! Did you take the T-towels and dishwashing cloths home to launder? There are no washcloths in the main kitchen.

MISSIONS OUTREACH

Let's go Crazy Turning Old Crayons into New Ones!

Did you know that in the United States we make over 12 million crayons a day?

Crayons are a petroleum product. They take a long time to biodegrade. Instead of throwing away old crayons, the children's Sunday school classes will be collecting broken crayons throughout the summer for recycling. The old crayons shall become new Crazycrayons! Please help us with this mission project by bringing any broken crayons (paper may be left on) to church and place them in the baskets in the foyers or in the children's class rooms.

Invite your friends and family to help in the project too! This is another way we can join together to help the earth!

THANK YOU

By Catherine Highfill

Thank you for the cards they are beautiful and so many of them. I celebrated for over a week! Your calls, cards and visits are so appreciated.
