WORSHIP THIS WEEK

August 1, 2010

Scripture: Ephesians 3: 14-21

Sermon: "Envision Woodland: rooted"

Sacrament of Holy Communion

Worship begins at 11:00!

A PASTORAL WORD

By Rev. Amy Lippoldt

On Monday of next week the wonderful adventure of Vacation Bible School begins! It promises to be a "Galatic Blast" Some of the children who come will be ones we know, the same crew we see fill up the Sanctuary floor each week during "Time for Young Disciples." I hope that some children at VBS this week are children we don't know, children from our neighborhood or children who might be in search of a new church home. I hope you will join me in praying for all the children of Woodland's VBS and if you have a few free minutes stop by and check out the action for yourself.

I am thankful for the work of our education committee, the director, Sherry Mikesell, and all the teachers/guides and parents who will make VBS a success. I have no doubt that the songs will be fun, the crafts beautiful (in a VBS kind of way), the games sweaty, the snacks tasty, the stories enchanting and the science experiments thrilling. All the effort and energy will be given in hopes of teaching, modeling and demonstrating for children what it means to love and serve God. It's going to be a great week!

Pathfinders Class

What a schedule! Here's what's coming up:

Saturday, July 31, 6:00 pm "Not so Newlywed Game & Pie Auction" in the Fellowship Hall.

Come, Come! Intense fun!!

Sunday, August 1, 9:45 am "2nd part" of training for Daybreak seeds, ushers and greeters.

Saturday, September 11, "The Blast Off" for Daybreak service. 11:00 am to 3:00 pm Food, inflatables & games!

Sunday, September 12, 9:30 am Day Break Service starts!

Val Vers Class

We thank Ray Keller for again trying to teach us something about the Bible. Next week Judy Jones will start her series of lessons.

Remember our class will start at 9:30 instead of 9:45am beginning this Sunday which is different from the other Sunday school classes. There will be no treats or coffee in the classroom because of Fellowship Coffee.

Blenders Class

We were few in numbers today, as many of our members were attending the Hospitality training meeting. We were happy to see Marge Parsons, out and about, after her shoulder surgery. Her daughter, Carol, from Florida has been her “helper” and we were happy to have her with us.

Since this was the third time Marge Brooks has been back with us, we can count her as a regular member. Cliff Larson has been in the hospital, but will be dismissed Monday, we hope he continues to improve.

Remember our class is in charge of Fellowship Coffee Sunday, Aug. 1st so all members please bring your “goodies” on a tray or plate to the kitchen before Sunday school.

Remember Sunday school starts at 9:45am and Fellowship Coffee at 10:30 am!

Frances Erhard reminded us that on Friday, July 20, 1938, we could have had a lunch at “Innes Tea Room” consisting of a cup of Pea soup, or Tomato Juice Cocktail; Broiled Tenderloin Steak with assorted fresh vegetables, hot rolls or biscuits; choice of Apple or Custard Pie or Fresh Plum Cobbler; Coffee, Tea, Milk or Buttermilk for 85 cents!

Frances Devotions were by Charles L. Allen, entitled “Throw Away your Walking Stick.” Instead of feeling sorry for ourselves, complaining etc. we need to “wait on the Lord”, study and meditate on his Word and let Him renew our strength.

We are sorry you absent members had to miss Steve Martz as he completed his lesson from the book on Elijah. “A Man of Heroism and Humility”. He brought out many good points for us to consider such as:

Effective Tools: prayer of Faith; people who dedicate their life to God. People you know who have influenced your life; power to demonstrate to people. Remember God keeps his promises. Thank you, Steve! Also thanks to the UMW for providing our picnic lunch.

We look forward to next Sunday when Anita Martz will be our teacher- maybe Walter and Joan can follow her!!

IN OUR PRAYERS

Cliff Larson, Lela Frederick, Catherine Highfill, Kathy Carter, Elna Claire Valine
Jerry Taylor.

Scholarship Applications

Applications for Woodland UMC College and University scholarships may be picked up in church office or the back of the Sanctuary. Scholarships are for students that are members of Woodland and beginning their sophomore, junior or senior years of college. Applications must be returned by Friday July, 30, 2010.

THANK YOU

By Marge Parsons

Many thanks to all my friends at Woodland for all their cards, prayers and good wishes.

I expect to be recovered soon and I sincerely appreciate your concern. Thank you so much.

MISSIONS OUTREACH

Baby Shower

The Education & Mission Committee is hosting a “Baby Shower” for United Methodist Open Door and you are all invited to participate!

UMOD especially has a need right now for baby formula (regular and soy) and disposable diapers or pull ups (all sizes).

Help us support UMOD by bringing your donations to the sanctuary each Sunday between now and August 8th.

Going Crazy Turning Old Crayons into Crazycrayons!

As you buy new crayons for school this year, remember you can recycle your old and broken crayons at WUMC. Please help the children with this mission project by bringing any broken crayons (paper may be left on) to church and place them in the baskets in the foyers or in the children's class rooms between now and the end of August. Invite your friends and family to help in the project too! This is another way we can join together to help the earth!

Thank you for your support of our project to turn old crayons into new ones!

“Not-So Newlywed” Game & Pie Auction

On July 31st the Finance committee is hosting a special evening for our “Bridges” pledge. Several couples pre-selected from the congregation will play the “Not-so Newlywed Game” (I am sure the competition will be as fierce and funny as last year's Family Feud) we will eat pie and have a pie auction. I think the home made pie alone will be worth the trip but when you add entertainment and a great cause, it's an evening you won't want to miss.

So mark July 31st at 6:00 pm on your calendar.

Vacation Bible School is a Galactic Blast!

We are counting the days until Vacation Bible School Galactic Blast! All boys and girls ages three through 5th grade are invited to join in the fun as we learn about God through music, stories, snacks and games all centered on an outer space theme. The mission control team has lots of fun activities planned for this outer space adventure! Please join us on Monday, Aug. 2, through Friday, August 6th at 9:00-11:30 a.m. We will wrap up the week with an all church ice cream social at 6:30 p.m. on Friday evening. We're looking forward to seeing you there!

Join the Kansas East vs. West Conference Walking Challenge!

It's not too late to get in on the fun. The 2nd annual walking challenge between KS East and KS West conferences began on Friday, May 28, 2010 for the West and on June 10, 2010 for the East. You can join the challenge any time but the sooner the better for your own health and to rack up steps for your conference.

To join follow this link:

<http://www.kswestumc.org/walkchallenge> create your own account, enter your church and begin logging steps, miles or time then track your progress. It's easy, it's fun and it's good for you! Start a walking group at your church or walk with your family or friends

Rev. Amy is currently the only person signed up from Woodland and has racked up 500,000 steps since the program began. Come on walkers, create an account and add to Woodland's total steps!
